Forecast for Monday 04 Oct 2021

Weather: Clear or sunny spells, best of these in the east, and heavy, perhaps thundery showers with a risk of hail at times. The showers die out from late morning with cloud increasing through the afternoon bringing increasingly persistent and heavy rain for the evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: Around 40% in west but nearer 75% in east improving close to 100% for a time in afternoon before chances fall to zero in the evening.

Visibility: Occasional or, more especially in west, periods of cloud above 600m with patches below through the morning with cloud lifting above summits in afternoon before widespread low cloud develops in evening. Otherwise visibility very good falling to just a few kilometres in heavier showers and evening rain, and perhaps a kilometre or less in hail.
